The College

Nestling in the midst of the open green field in the western fringe of Jalpaiguri district, Maynaguri college has taken an important role in the education scenario of Maynaguri block. This seat of education lies 4km north of Maynaguri town en route to Malbazar. The college was established on 18th November, 1999. It is a degree college affiliated to the University of North Bengal. The University Grants Commission has recognized this college under section 2f and 12B of its Act. In spite of its infancy, within a short span of time the college has consolidated its position as a premier institution in North Bengal imparting knowledge in the diverse fields of Humanities and Basic sciences.. The NAAC accredited this college with grade B+ in its 2nd cycle of accreditation.

The Department of Lifelong Learning Extension

As per the Eleventh Plan Guidelines of UGC and the decision of the North Bengal University Executive Council, the Department of Adult, Continuing Education & Field Outreach (DACEEFO) flourished as a full-fledged Department with full academic status under the University of North Bengal. The nomenclature has been changed as the Department of Lifelong Learning & Extension (DLLE) in October, 2009. It is now imparting MA in Rural Development and organizing Extension activities like Disaster Management, Plant Tissue Culture, Health and Nutrition and so on.

Theme

The study of child trafficking is an important aspect of Social geography since it pervasively affects the human beings and society. Even in this 21st Century, the issue of child trafficking remains a burning problem in all over the world. This trafficking creates multi-dimensional far reaching effect in any country and in its neighbouring areas. Child trafficking affects the social environment of an area.
